

Fancy getting outdoors? Visit a nearby Hampshire & Isle of Wight Wildlife Trust nature reserve to see some local wildlife and experience some rich landscapes.

Roydon Woods Nature Reserve

This nature reserve is beautiful all year round – whenever you choose to visit, you're sure to be absorbed by the magic of this enchanting ancient woodland.

 Approx. 9 miles | 23 minutes

Blashford Lakes Nature Reserve

Created from flooded gravel pits, Blashford Lakes is now a bustling centre of activity, used by thousands of birds all year round including kingfisher, lapwing and oystercatcher.

 Approx. 13 miles | 28 minutes

Lymington and Keyhaven Marshes

This coastal reserve offers fantastic views across the Solent to Hurst Castle and the Isle of Wight.

 Approx. 7 miles | 17 minutes

Bouldnor Forest Nature Reserve

Bouldnor Forest is one of our Isle of Wight based sites with a prehistoric past. Boasting a variety of habitats, including pine forest, heathland, cliffs and seagrass beds.

 Approx. 15 miles on the Ferry

Continue your adventure

For more information, including about access and parking for local reserves, visit:
hiwwt.org.uk/nature-reserves or scan the QR.